Instructional Technology Vision and Goals

Page Last Modified: 08/18/2016

B. Instructional Technology Vision and Goals

1. Please provide the district mission statement.

The Hornell City School District's mission is to nurture, encourage, and cultivate lifelong learners who contribute to a diverse society as productive citizens.

2. Please provide the executive summary of the instructional technology plan, including vision and goals.

The purpose of education is to have students acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to become responsible and productive members of society. Therefore, every student has the opportunity to develop to their fullest potential. Technology is a mechanism for learning that expands our instructional range and is a vehicle that maximizes the aptitude of all district stakeholders. It is the vision of the Hornell City School District to nurture, encourage, and cultivate lifelong learners who contribute to a diverse society as productive citizens and that students embrace success through a student-centered, inquiry-based environment with the most current technology available to them. Technology and network tools increase dynamic and participatory learning in a way that fosters scholarship and the diffusion of information.

Hornell City School District's Technology Plan Goals Include:

- Technology must facilitate a wide range of educational methodologies and compliment direct student faculty and student student interactions.
- All members of the Hornell City School District must have sufficient access to technologies.
- All members of the Hornell City School District must have appropriate training and professional development to fully integrate in the classroom all technology resources available to them
- The use of instructional technologies shall be actively encouraged, supported and accessed.
- The Hornell City School District shall adopt a financial policy that supports the technology plan.
- Decisions on best practices and use of funding involve participation from key stakeholders

3. Please summarize the planning process used to develop the instructional technology plan. Please include the stakeholder groups participating and outcomes of the instructional technology plan development meetings.

The planning process for developing the Instructional Technology Plan for Hornell City School District consists of continual participation and collaboration of all stakeholders involved with the district's Technology Committee. The committee has and will meet monthly. The committee consists of teachers at each grade level, K-12, the technology coordinator, the curriculum coordinator, elementary principal, high school library media specialist, technology integration specialist, IT network specialists as well as curriculum content teachers at various levels at the high school. Agenda items for this committee included discussions, planning and decisions on the varying sections of the technology plan. The outcomes of these meetings have included but not limited to the review and assessment of existing staff and student technology use with the current curriculum, standards and benchmarks, focus and assess all ideas brought to the committee to be in line with the district's goals, vision and mission. The committee has and will continue to work on establishing needs and resources for curriculum and technology integration requests submitted to the committee for review by teacher and grade level department teams.

4. Please provide the source(s) of any gap between the current level of technology and the district's stated vision and goals.

5. Based upon your answer to question four, what are the top three reasons causing the gap? If you chose "No Gap Present" in question four, please enter N/A.

1. Professional Development has been offered in an ad-hoc mode which has left all staff at varying levels of proficiency. There is an immediate need to get all staff on the same page with regard to technology integration.
2. The device gap is directly related to the professional development and access point issue in that we cannot roll out individual devices to individual students until the staff know how to properly and efficiently integrate technology.
3. The connections between closets are now acting as an hourglass in the network.
